EPISODE 0 · A WHISKER HOLLOW QUEST

The Missing Mitten Mission

A letter arrived this morning —

Dear Willa — I have lost my red mitten. I wore it yesterday morning, sorting yarn in the cold storeroom, and by teatime it was gone. I have looked under every cushion in the shop. My left paw is very cold, and rather embarrassed. Please help. — Bramble

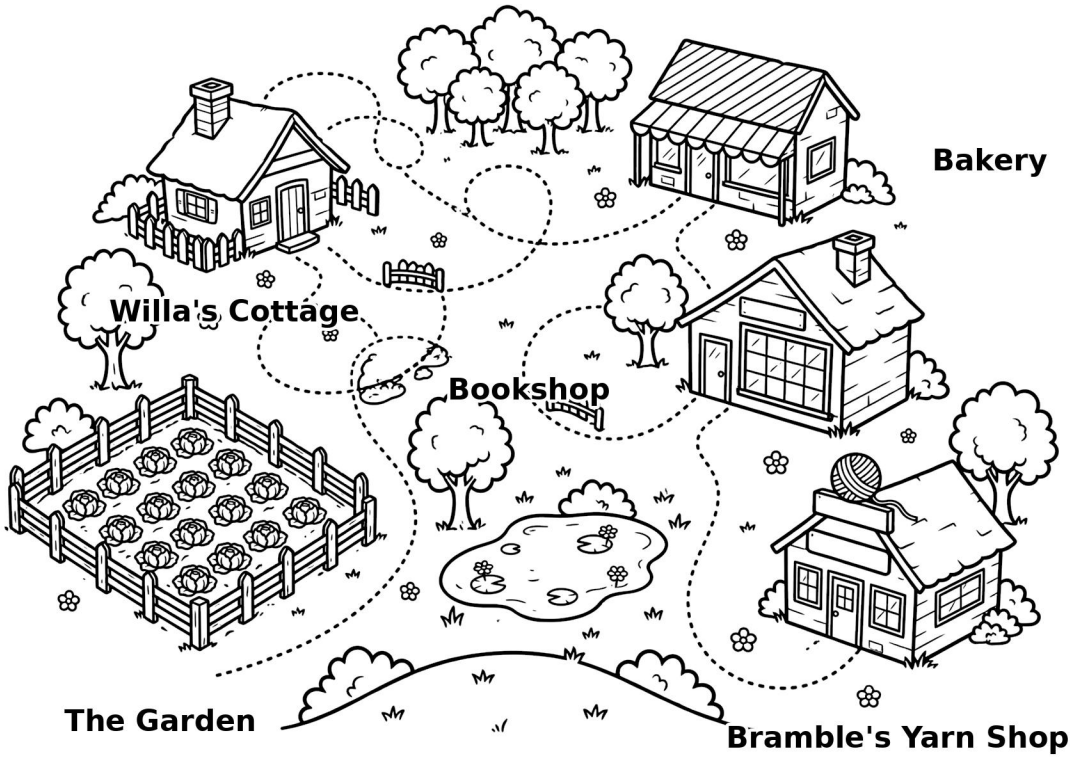

THE MAP

The Village of Whisker Hollow

Follow the dotted trail from Willa's Cottage to the Bookshop.

Scenic trail through the village — follow the clues, not just the dots.

STOP 1 · THE STORY

The Garden

Biscuit searched the garden path, nose low, while Pip lifted every cabbage leaf with care. "Bramble came this way," Pip said. "Look — red wool on the gate." A single loop of scarlet yarn clung to the latch, and small muddy pawprints wandered on toward the bookshop. The trail was still warm.

CLUE FOUND

A loop of red wool on the garden gate — and muddy pawprints heading for the bookshop.

Next stop: Bramble's Yarn Shop. Turn the page.

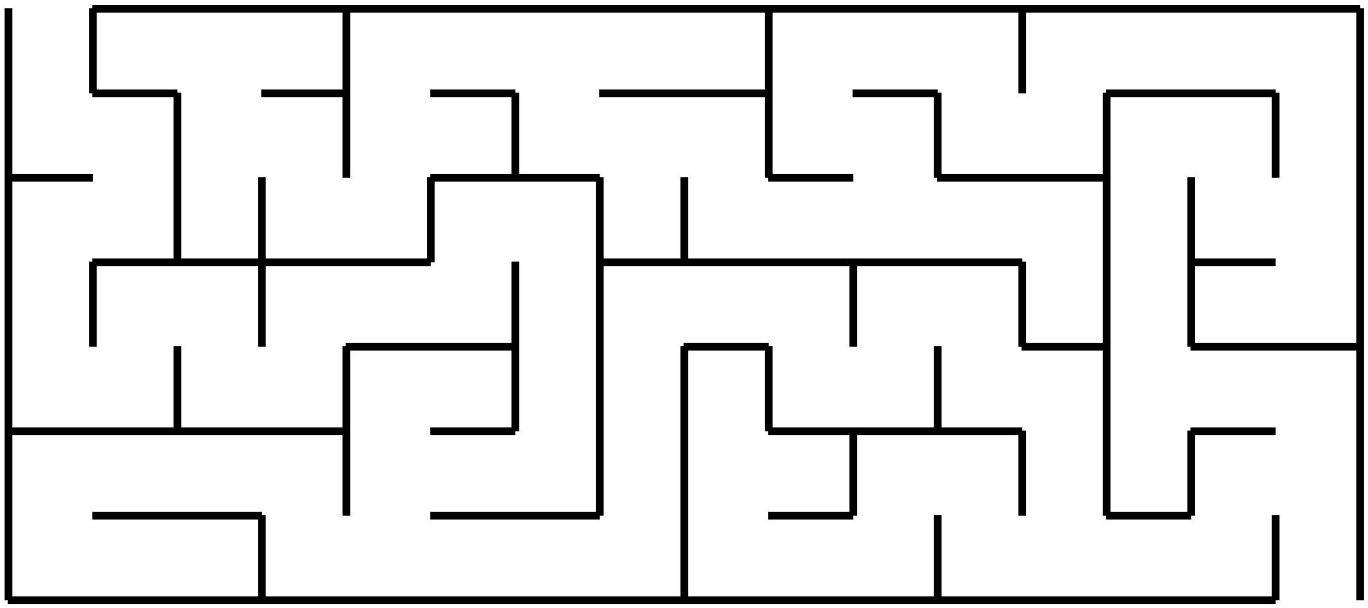

STOP 2

Bramble's Yarn Shop

Help Bramble search his shop. Follow the maze from the shop door to the storeroom.

SHOP DOOR

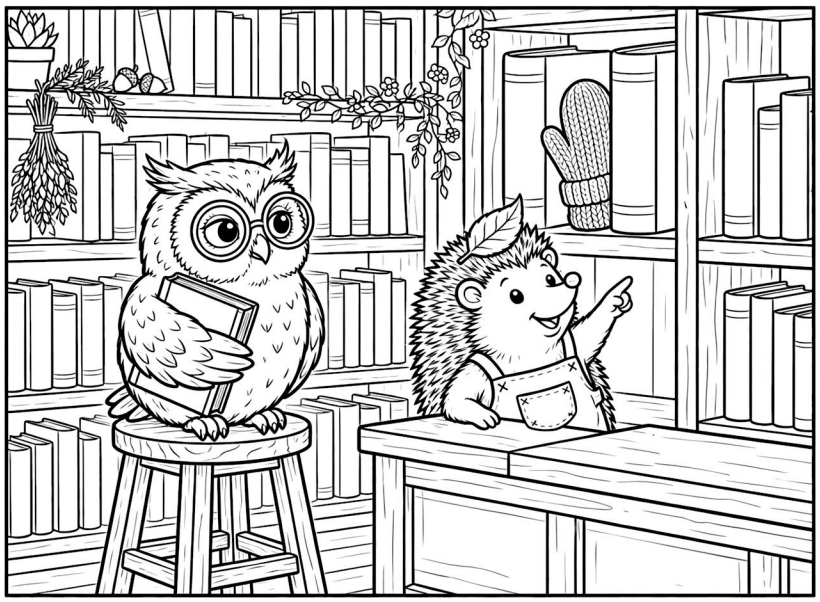

STOREROOM

At the end of the maze: a note in Hazel's writing — 'Bramble, you carried my books home yesterday. Did you leave something behind?'

STOP 3

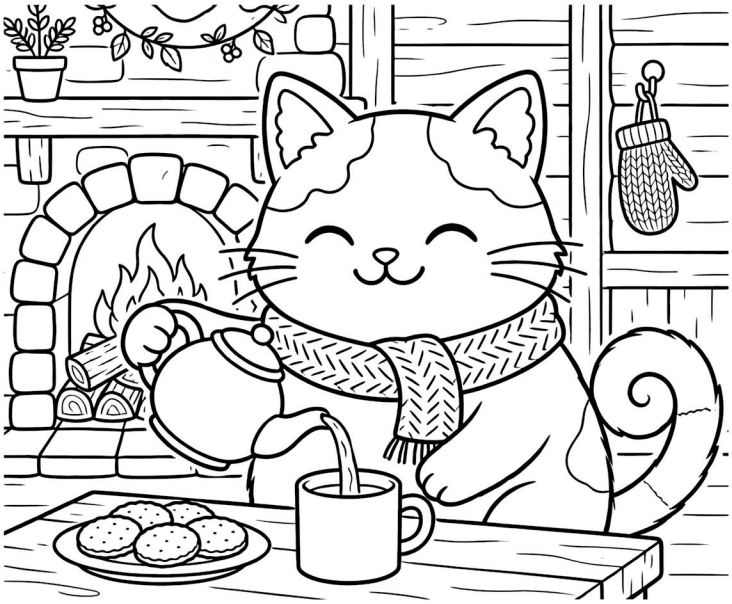

The Bookshop

Hazel pushed her glasses up and thought hard. "Bramble carried my books back yesterday," she said. "He set them right there." Pip squeezed behind the counter — and squeaked. Between two cookery books sat one red mitten, folded neat as a bookmark. "Found it!" cried Pip. "It had been shelved."

HOME AGAIN

Teatime

By teatime the mitten was home, brushed clean and warming by Bramble's fire. He sent over a plate of honey biscuits by way of thanks. Willa poured the tea, hung her scarf on its hook, and smiled. Another small mystery solved — and supper, as always, tasted better shared.
